

THE BIG QUIZ OF CHILDREN'S RIGHTS

1. What are children's rights?

- A. A right is something that every child must have.
- B. A right is something that every child must do.

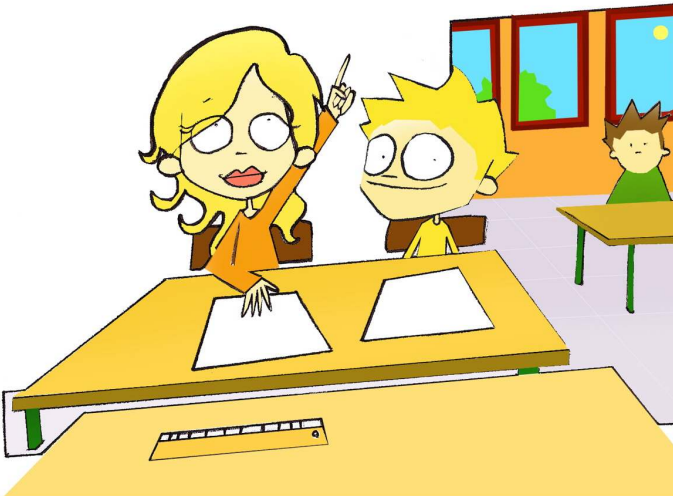

2. What is a duty?

- A. A duty is something you must do.
- B. A duty is something you may do.

3. What is the 'Convention of Children's Rights'?

- A. A lot of money.
- B. A law which is signed by different countries.
- C. A name of a book.

4. Which right do you see?

- A. Every child has the right to play and to have free time.
- B. Every child has the right to have education and information.

5. What does the right of education mean?

- A. Every child needs to go to school to learn something.
- B. Children have to make homework everyday.
- C. Children can only study and never play.

6. What is information?

- A. Things children don't have to know.
- B. A specific topic where you want to know more about.
- C. Something inside a computer.

7. Why do all children need to have a name?

- A. Because a name makes you unique.
- B. Because children without a name can't learn.
- C. Because a name is beautiful.

8. Is the following statement correct or incorrect?

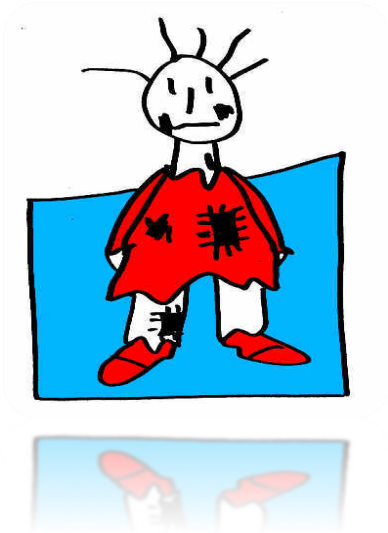

The right on information means that children need to have an explanation about things which concerns them.

A. Correct

B. Incorrect

9. When adults hit their children, how do you call it?

- A. therapy
- B. Mistreatment
- C. malnutrition

10. The right to protection, what does it mean?

- A. It means that children may not sit too long in front of a TV-screen.
- B. It means that children may not play outside without a raincoat.
- C. It means that no one may hurt children.

11. What is another word for 'equal'?

- A. Every
- B. Equally important
- C. Different

12. Everyone is equal. What does that mean?

- A. Everyone has the same size.
- B. Everyone looks the same.
- C. Everyone is equally important.

13. Which right do you see?

- A. Every child has the right to be protected against war.
- B. Every child has the right to be protected against exploitation.

14. The right to have your own opinion.

What does that mean?

- A. Children should get everything they want.
- B. Children can say what they think.
- C. Children can always shout very loudly.

15. Which statement is incorrect?

- A. Children should always get what they ask for.
- B. Children can always say what they think.
- C. Adults should also listen to children.

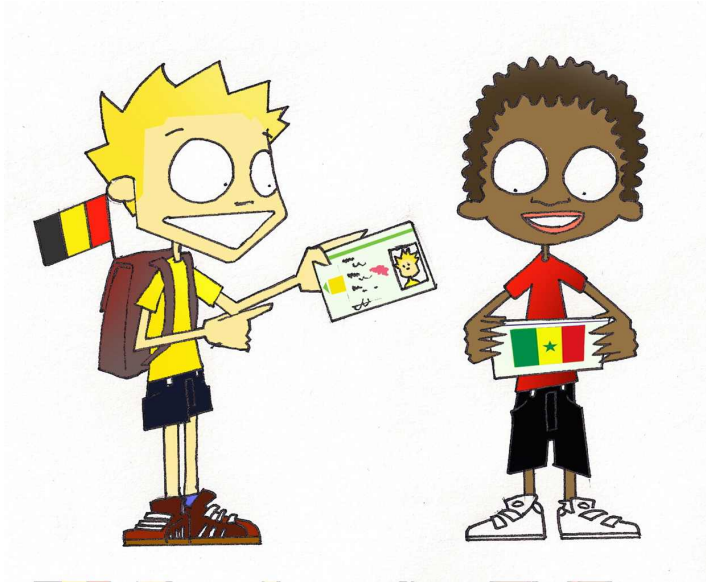

16. The right of love. What does that mean?

- A. All children need to sing lovesongs.
- B. All children should get everything they ask for.
- C. Every child should have someone who loves him/her.

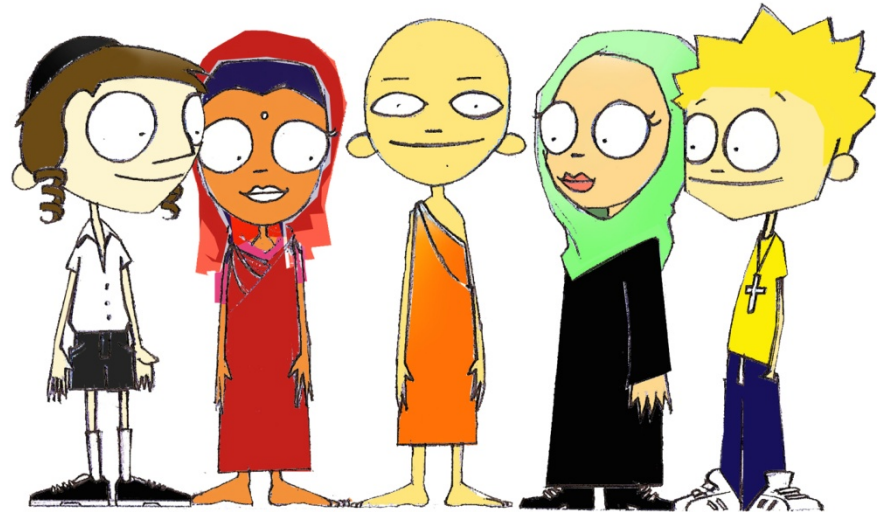

17. Which image fits the most with the following right?

Every child has the right of having an own religion and culture.

A

B

18. Is the following statement correct or incorrect?

The children's rights only apply for boys.

A. Correct

B. Incorrect

19. Is the following statement correct or incorrect?

A boy has more to decide than a girl.

A. Correct

B. Incorrect

20. Is the following statement correct or incorrect?

The children's rights are universal.

- A. Correct
- B. Incorrect

The End

